

SEES NO DANGER OF MINE SPLIT

Unions Awaiting Action by the Illinois Chief.

LATTER NOT MAKING UNCONSIDERED STEP

Will Abide by the Union Decision Against Separate Pact for the Time Being.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 9.—The Illinois chief today saw no danger of a split in the ranks of the United Mine Workers of America, and waiting to see what will be the result of the action taken by Frank Farrington's Illinois miners and waiting to see what will be the outcome of the government's efforts to force the coal operators to come to terms with their employees. There was no split, however, who could force the future in either case.

To Comply Temporarily. Having telegraphed to Farrington, the time for the international officials of the union "that we are pleased to know it is the purpose of the Illinois miners 'to comply with the decision' of the executive board in session here against any separate agreement in Illinois or elsewhere in the bituminous coal fields, miners' officials were inclined to dispose of the Farrington matter as a closed book—at least for the time being. The telegram to Farrington was in reply to one from the Illinois chief stating that the Illinois miners would keep with the international body only so long as there was prospect of an interstate miners-operators conference by April 1.

Davis in Communication. Washington, March 9.—Secretary of Labor Davis announced this afternoon that he was in direct communication with the representatives of the coal operators in the central competitive field regarding a conference with the miners in order to avert the threatened coal strike. Labor department officials believe the operators will agree to meet the miners and thus carry out the spirit and intent of the 1920 agreement, which provided for a preliminary conference to meet prior to April 21, 1922.

"The government has no desire to interfere unduly," Secretary Davis said, "but I can not see why in the interest of common sense, the two sides to the coal controversy can not get together and adjust their differences and save the country from the costly results of a strike."

Branch Grows. Kansas City, Mo., March 9.—The branch between coal operators and miners in the six southwestern coal mining states widened today. It appeared certain that on April 1, the 40,000 miners in the district will go on strike.

At a conference today between representatives of the miners and the Southwestern Coal Operators' association, the miners flatly refused to accede to the proposed wage reductions and abolition of the check-off system.

RAILROADS END ORAL DEFENSE

Passenger and Freight Rates Argued.

INTERSTATE BODY CONDUCTS HEARING

Railroad Officials Ask That Credit Be Given Them for Reductions Already Made.

Washington, March 9.—Before the interstate commerce commission the railroads began their final defense of existing levels of freight and passenger rates. The roads' attorneys gave oral arguments, which will conclude the hearings that have continued for several months.

Henry Wolf Biddle of the Pennsylvania system, Fred H. Wood, general counsel of the Southern Pacific, and Frank Gwathmey for the southern railroads, insisted that neither on legal or economic grounds had the mass of testimony taken disclosed ground for the commission to make general reductions of rates.

Commissioner Lewis interrupted Mr. Wood's argument to ask how railroads intended to proceed under the promise of lower rates which they made to the country by the resolution of their executives in instituting complaints before the railway labor board, asking for further general reductions in wages. He asked: "Is it the intention of the railroads to make all those wage reductions translatable in reduced freight rates?" Mr. Wood replied that that was the intention, but after a momentary conference with Alfred P. Thoni, counsel for the railway executives, he added that the roads would ask to be given "credit for reductions already made" in applying the amounts which they expected to receive.

VICEROY MAY QUIT OFFICE

Lord Reading, Indian Ruler, Is Ready To Resign.

CONDITIONS IN INDIA GIVEN AS REASON

Demand of Natives Are Said To Exceed Even Those of the Turks.

London, March 9.—The resignation of Lord Reading, British viceroy to India, is expected. Secretary of State Montagu's resignation today was the culmination of the cabinet's opposition to his pro-Muslim policy.

In making the announcement, Mr. Chamberlain said that the retelling secretary had approved publication of the Indian Muslim demands regarding Turkey without consulting the cabinet.

Demand Exceed Those of Turks. "The demands of the Indians, the government spokesman added, exceeded even those of the Turks."

The announcement was made by the government spokesman, Austen Chamberlain, Mr. Montagu's resignation resulted from the political unrest in India which is growing.

The resignation was hastened by the recommendations of the Indian government that the treaty of Sevres be revised in favor of Turkey to placate the Muslims. The Indian government also suggested that the British withdraw from Constantinople.

Mr. Montagu was appointed secretary for India in 1917. Previously he had been munitions minister.

BRITAIN WARNED BY INDIAN LEADER

Condemns Policy Inaugurated by Officials.

London, March 9.—The British government has been warned by Mohandas K. Gandhi at the Indian national congress just held at Ahmedabad, India, of danger that it would alienate the people of India by its present policy. "Think before you do. Three hundred and fifteen millions will be your enemy," he said. Yet Gandhi was speaking at the head of the moderate members of the congress.

Resolutions were adopted condemning the recently inaugurated policy of the British government, which was characterized as a "policy of repression," reaffirming the non-cooperation movement and calling for more national volunteers.

Besides voting the suspension of all other activities and "concentration upon civil disobedience," the congress appealed to all its supporters to "quietly and without any demonstration offer themselves for arrest by belonging to the volunteer organizations to be formed throughout the country."

Purpura was convicted of taking part in the Sly-Fanner payroll robbery and murders at Cleveland. The governor's stay of execution was in response, it was announced, to requests received last week from Assistant Prosecutor James J. Cassidy and Common Pleas Judge Dan B. Cull, Cleveland, who declared that evidence which Purpura can give is necessary in connection with the appeal case of Dominick Indignio, also of Cleveland, who has been sentenced to electrocution for being an accomplice in the Sly-Fanner robbery and murders.

10 PENSIONS FOR MANY GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Ruling Is Issued by Attorney General Daugherty.

Washington, March 9.—Approximately 10,000 government employees may now be eligible for pension under the new law by providing that they have been employed for at least ten years and that they are at least 62 years of age. The ruling was issued by Attorney General Daugherty and transmitted to the pension department, which will make the final determination.

Secretary Fall, in announcing the ruling, said that out of 10,000 employees who have been receiving unemployment benefits, 10,000 are eligible for pension. He said that the ruling was issued in response to a request from the pension department, which had asked for a ruling on the matter.

The attorney general's ruling held that only those in the government service holding their positions as the result of competitive examination were entitled to the benefits of the retirement act.

As a consequence of the ruling, Secretary Fall said he had prepared a bill which has been submitted to the proper committees of congress for consideration in view of the fact that the act of 1919, which provided for the pension of government employees, was not intended to apply to those who had already been retired.

WARDEN IS FOR DEATH PENALTY

Disagrees with the Opinion of Governor Davis.

SAYS ABOLITION WOULD BE DANGEROUS STEP

Believed in Power of Governor To Grant Pardons If They Are Merited.

March 9.—"An instance of death would be an improvement upon the present state of affairs," Warden Preston H. Thomas, of the penitentiary, in his disagreement with the opinion of Governor Harry L. Davis that the death penalty should be abolished, building that the power of the governor to grant pardons should be limited sharply. "If the death penalty were done away with the lives of the warden and guards in this prison would not be added to the head of the institution. Indeed, a most dangerous situation always would exist. I think the electric chair should stay there as a protection to society."

Should Be Amended. However, the law should be amended to provide that murderers sentenced to die should be put to death on dates set by the governor, and not by the courts. This would place the future largely in the hands of the condemned person. If he were amenable to discipline and conducted himself properly it is probable that the governor would not order a date for the execution of his sentence. If, on the other hand, he displayed his vicious and murderous tendencies and showed that he was beyond recovery, he could be sent to the chair.

"Under present conditions murderers sentenced to life imprisonment serve less than eight years. Under the plan I propose they could be kept for life and compelled to remain law-abiding because of the constant threat of death in the chair. I think it would close the gap that now is wide open in the criminal system."

This compromise measure will be brought to the attention of Governor Davis, who has announced his intention of recommending the proposed change in his next message to the general assembly. Meanwhile both approval and opposition is being manifested toward the projected new policy, and many letters on the subject are arriving at the executive chambers.

MRS. OBENCHAIN IS CALLED TO STAND

Divorce Testifies in Noted Murder Case.

Los Angeles, March 9.—"Mrs. Obenchain, take the stand." With these words, Judge Bush, chief defense counsel, today brought the trial of Madeline Obenchain, pretty Chicago divorcee, charged with the murder of J. Robert Kennedy, to a dramatic climax.

Mrs. Obenchain, a trifle nervous and before one of the largest crowds that ever filled a Los Angeles courtroom, took the witness chair and began telling her own complete story for the first time. A few minutes before she went on the stand, Mrs. Obenchain predicted that her testimony would win her acquittal.

She was preceded on the stand by one witness who testified briefly. Miss Marilyn E. Smith told of Belton Kennedy, who wooed Mrs. Obenchain, showering her with letters.

It is understood here that coal mine operators who have been commiserated with by Secretary of Labor Davis still were evincing unwillingness to enter any discussion with the union looking to the construction of a new national wage contract and were insisting on their intention to make state and district contracts or operate without union status.

"It's never touched me yet," he explained when they pointed out the risks.

That's the answer a good many people make when they hear that the drug element in tea and coffee often harms nerves and health. They say it's never touched them yet.

Sometimes they only think it hasn't.

Over on the safe side is Postum, a pure cereal beverage, delicious and satisfying—containing nothing that can harm nerves or digestion. Thousands who used to try their luck with tea or coffee are enthusiastic over having found safety and satisfaction in Postum.

It's worth your while to make the test with Postum for ten days. Postum is a delightful drink for any member of the family, at any meal.

CLEMENCY ASKED FOR BOY MURDERER

Sixteen-Year-Old Lad Is Taken to State Prison.

Michigan City, Ind., March 9.—While John Mellick, sixteen, began work today on the "quarry equal" of the state prison here, where he is under sentence to serve the balance of his life at hard labor, a movement was launched to obtain clemency for the youthful convict.

The boy, who was convicted of the murder of his stepmother in November, 1921, is the first lad in adult pants ever to enter the prison here. He "dressed in" last night, exchanging his patterned knee trousers for the regulation prisoner uniform.

Many public officials, citizens' organizations and several newspapers have begun a campaign to obtain an alteration of the sentence. The opinion that the sentence was unwarrantedly severe has been expressed in many quarters.

STRIKE HELD TO BE INEVITABLE

No Split in Ranks Is Likely, Say Officers.

ILLINOIS SITUATION IS SUBJECT OF TALK

Farrington To Be Governed by Decision on Single State Agreements.

Indianapolis, March 9.—Officials of the United Mine Workers anticipate no split of union forces over the prospective coal strike on April 1 to result from any negotiations that may be held in Illinois towards effecting a wage agreement for that state alone.

A message from Frank Farrington, Illinois district president and leader of the anti-administration faction within the union, was declared by the officials here to mean that Farrington would be governed by the decision on single state agreements that will be made by the union's policy committee, on which the administration officials will have a majority following.

The announcement by the union leaders here was regarded as increasing the likelihood of a walkout of miners on April 1 and also as removing a possible entering wedge in the nation-wide strike threat by single state agreements keeping some miners at work. The Farrington message, sent from St. Louis, where Illinois officials met to consider the single state agreement proposal, asserted that negotiations would be entered into by the miners unless an interstate conference was arranged, but it was regarded as adding in effect that Illinois would in the end be governed by the policy committee decision.

It is understood here that coal mine operators who have been commiserated with by Secretary of Labor Davis still were evincing unwillingness to enter any discussion with the union looking to the construction of a new national wage contract and were insisting on their intention to make state and district contracts or operate without union status.

JARS IN HIS CELLAR

Officers Go Through Cellar Window When Refused Admission on Search Warrant.

In the absence of mayor and both justices of the peace from their offices early Wednesday afternoon, Chief of Police J. W. Thompson fled an affidavit in the office of the clerk of courts for a warrant to search the residence of Charles R. Foreman, at the corner of Mark and Park streets, for intoxicating liquor.

Chief Thompson, Sheriff Frank A. Washburn and two other officers went to the Foreman house to serve the warrant, but were refused admission. Foreman was seen in the cellar smashing jars and two of the officers went through a cellar window. A copper boiler converted into a still was on the stove and contained some of the liquid, while the officers found one jar of the liquor and took a jar of mash for evidence.

Foreman was placed under arrest and taken to the office of J. Farr Larie, justice of the peace, where he was arraigned on a charge of illegally manufacturing intoxicants. The still, mash and jar of finished product were offered in evidence and on Foreman's plea of guilty he was fined $750 and costs and sentenced to the county jail until the amount is paid or secured to be paid.

the conference." It was stated at the British foreign office.

"The Geneva conference will be held according to plans and it is hoped that America will send observers."

So serious has the Indian situation become that the cabinet decided to take it up today instead of waiting until tomorrow. The political unrest in India is regarded as critical and the premier is anxious to unite his colleagues upon a settlement policy at the earliest possible moment.

While the Irish Free State act officially creating the new Irish state has passed the house of commons upon third and final reading, it is understood that the enemies of the premier in the house of lords intend to put up a fight against it. This will be more for display than any other reason as passage of commons makes the bill effective.

ale today.

Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas, denounced the treaty on three grounds:

First—That it fails to "guarantee a reversal of the Japanese policy of aggression and encroachment in China."

Second—That it strongly tends to commit the United States to a passive attitude while Japan maintains her hold on rich Chinese and Russian provinces in Asia by armed military forces.

Third—That it leaves "wide open" the "trouble making domestic problems" involved in Japanese immigration, race equality and land ownership which "means so much to the peace and welfare, not only to the Pacific coast but to the whole American people."

GET A MOTOR HIGH SPEED WASHING MACHINE AND FORGET ABOUT BLUE MONDAY
Said "Old Blue Monday" to the "Motor High Speed,"
You have too many good features to put you in the lead.
Why do you butt in, when I've had charge of wash day for years,
With your special wooden agitator and your spiral cut gears?
Said the "Motor High" to "Old Monday" so blue,
I have a mission to perform, which will not sound good to you.
I make washing a pleasure, no bruised up knuckles or broken back,
I wash clothes clean, easy and quickly, these are facts.
Said "Old Blue Monday" to the famous "Motor High,"
Won't you please stop selling, and he started to cry.
I have always boasted of making Monday so dreary,
Now you have changed my plans, you make me weary.

cathartics— one of the chief causes of constipation?

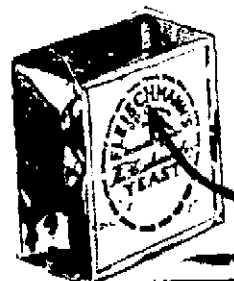

The quotation is taken from an important paper on the treatment of constipation by a well-known physician.

DID it ever occur to you that the cathartic you take to relieve constipation, is the cause of your trouble?

Yet when a number of doctors were discussing this almost universal complaint one of them said: "Probably one of the most frequent causes of constipation is the indiscriminate use of cathartics." For years physicians have tried to persuade people to give up laxatives and to eat corrective foods instead.

It is now known that Fleischmann's Yeast is a food which makes the use of cathartics unnecessary. Because of its freshness it helps the intestines eliminate waste matter.

People who are adding Fleischmann's Yeast to their daily diet find that their body functions are kept normal and regular. Eat 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals every day. Place a standing order with your grocer. He will deliver Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily.

OFFERS BOYS CHANCE TO BECOME MECHANICS

Marion Steam Shovel Has Modern Training Course.

SYSTEM IS ONE OF
FINEST IN COUNTRY

Number Increases from Nine to
Fourteen Boys Since Opening
November 16.

An opportunity for boys aged from sixteen to twenty years, who are desirous of becoming skilled tradesmen or mechanics is offered to the apprentice training course recently installed at the plant of the Marion Steam Shovel company. The system now in operation at the Marion Steam Shovel company is one of the finest and most up-to-date in the country.

The course, which lasts for a period of four years, was opened here November 16 with nine boys enrolled. This number has since increased to fourteen. Three very attractive features, security, training and pay, are offered to the apprentice in this new course.

Adherence to Highest Standards.
One of the most important things, according to those in charge of the work is the selection of the boys and the highest standard are adhered to in their choice. Those who have not been desirable in school and can not secure the recommendation of the school authorities are disqualified.

In making application, a scale of 100 points is used by which the apprentice is graded. Five general divisions are made which include general impression, twenty-five points; mental, twenty-five points; physical, twenty points; moral, fifteen; and mathematics and reference, fifteen.

Under general impression, common sense draws ten points, while tact, mechanical aptitude and future ambitions, each draw five points. Under mental, two years of high school at the age of sixteen, observation, general knowledge, attitude and self reliance each count five points.

Under the head of physical, health draws ten points and activity and appearance each draw five points. Under moral, character draws ten points and manners and habits draw five points. Finally, mathematics draws ten points and reference draws five points.

Four-Page Record Sheet.
After the applicant has been accepted, a four-page record sheet is filled out, with a line allowed for each pay period. At these times he is given a grade on initiative, accuracy, neatness, reliability, reasoning, personality and attitude. Figures are used in grading. One stands for poor, two for deficient, three for medium, four for good and five for excellent. By the use of figures, it is possible to add them and strike an average.

While the term of the apprentice's course is four years, a high-school graduate is given credit for one year on his apprenticeship and is started in at the same rate of pay as which a second year apprentice is paid. At the end of our years work the high-school graduate, by reason of higher pay and having worked one year at a regular mechanics pay, will have earned $720 more than the boy with less than a full high-school training.

All of the boys attend classes during the first two hours of three days each week and are given pay for the time and credit for it on their apprenticeship. The time is devoted to studying history, civics, economics, the history of industry and invention, drafting and shop mechanics. Machinist apprentices pass several months in the foundry, forge and pattern shop to train them in the relation of the other departments to the industry as a whole. Apprentice draftsmen spend one and one-half years in the shop and erecting room before entering the drafting room.

The time of apprenticeship of four years is divided into eight periods of 1,320 hours each, totaling 10,560 hours. Divided by this equals about 129 hours each month or about eight hours a day. The apprentice and the company enter an agreement regarding the amount of work and the compensation. The terms, each with five memberships to their credit. Four memberships have been turned in by the Eight division and three by headquarters.

No other divisions have reported more than two memberships. Some of the divisions are believed to be holding back their reports in order to make a good showing at the end of the week.

The Women's Remedy Association met Wednesday afternoon at the Junior Order hall and completed plans for a banquet to be given in honor of Sir Knights of the Marion Lodge Friday evening, March 17. A large number of ladies, at which meeting of the ladies club, at which a large number of ladies will be present to be held the same evening.

MARION MAN BEGINS
RACE ACROSS ATLANTICAttempts To Reach Bedside of
His Dying Mother.FRANK BUTTERWORTH
LEAVES THIS AFTERNOONSails Saturday from Hoboken.
Gets Passport in Record of Two and One-Half Days.

Frank H. Butterworth, watchmaker, No. 375 east George street, leaves this evening for Jersey City on the first leg of a transatlantic race with death. His destination is Rochdale, eighty miles from Liverpool, England, where his mother, Mrs. Constance Collingwood, lies at the point of death following a stroke of paralysis.

Butterworth sails from Hoboken Saturday on the Cunard liner, Camperdown, scheduled to dock in Liverpool six days later. Luck so far has favored him in the race to reach his mother's side before death intervenes. Circumstances of the case spurred officials of the department of state to unwarranted activity enabling him to obtain passports two and one-half days after his application was received in Washington. Usually from a week to ten days are required.

Away Thirteen Years.
Desire of Butterworth to reach his mother before she dies is intensified by the fact that he has not seen her for thirteen years. When he left England, he came first to Cleveland then went to Toledo where he was located for seven years. He has been in Marion nineteen months.

Butterworth received the first cable appraising him of his mother's condition last Friday. He immediately forwarded to Washington an application for passports. The necessary papers were received in Marion Wednesday morning. The application reached Washington Monday. The speed with which they were received establishes a record for Marion.

After applying for passports Butterworth received a second cable stating that his mother was not expected to live and that she has been calling for him.

Before leaving Marion, Butterworth stated that he could not tell how long he would remain in England. If his mother dies he probably will be detained several months pending settlement of the estate.

CITY IN BRIEF

Paul Minshall Improving—Paul Minshall, of Ellis court, who is a student at Georgetown university, is confined to a hospital in Washington where he was taken for a minor operation. His sister, Miss Margaret Minshall, is at his bedside and a telegram received from her Wednesday states that he is getting along nicely.

To Enter Campaign—Active participation in the coming political campaign was decided upon at a meeting of the Central Labor union at the headquarters on north Main street, Wednesday evening. United support and active work in behalf of candidates in sympathy with union labor was favored and plans to adopt a platform were approved.

Break All Records—All past records for depository interest in the county were broken during the short month of February when the interest paid on the county's funds by the various banks amounted to $2,679.05. This is due to the high rate being paid by the banks as in comparison to previous years, while the amount of the tax collection was exceptionally large.

Takes Case Up on Error—Through Carhart & Warner a petition in error was filed in the court of appeals this morning by the American Railway Express company, plaintiff-in-error, against Charles A. Cooper, defendant-in-error. The defendant-in-error received a judgment against the plaintiff-in-error in the sum of $251.19 in an action filed before Judge Grant E. Moser for the loss of household goods and the plaintiff-in-error asks that the judgment of the lower court be set aside.

Marion Wins Preliminary—Marion volleyball players representing the Y. M. C. A. Business Men's club won the preliminary for the northern division in the state tournament at Lima Wednesday afternoon. They will now play in the semi-finals at Dayton, meeting the winner of the preliminaries for the southern division. The Marion players met Toledo first, winning two straight games by scores of fifteen to seven and fifteen to ten. They then played Lima after that team had eliminated Van Wert and again won in straight games, fifteen to nine and fifteen to seven. Players participating were Hume, captain, Lindsay, Stuck, Stang, Foster and McDaniel.

Sunshine Class
Members of the Sunshine class of P. M. Memorial Baptist church met Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Porter, of Woodrow avenue. The afternoon was passed socially and a program was given. Guests of the class were Miss Margaret Grafton, Miss Mary Grafton, Joseph Grafton and Marion Turner. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

cathartics— one of the chief causes of constipation?

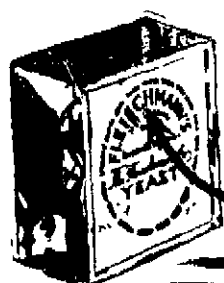

The quotation is taken from an important paper on the treatment of constipation by a well-known physician.

DID it ever occur to you that the cathartic you take to relieve constipation, is the cause of your trouble?

Yet when a number of doctors were discussing this almost universal complaint one of them said: "Probably one of the most frequent causes of constipation is the indiscriminate use of cathartics." For years physicians have tried to persuade people to give up laxatives and to eat corrective foods instead.

It is now known that Fleischmann's Yeast is a food which makes the use of cathartics unnecessary. Because of its freshness it helps the intestines eliminate waste matter.

People who are adding Fleischmann's Yeast to their daily diet find that their body functions are kept normal and regular. Eat 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals every day. Place a standing order with your grocer. He will deliver Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily.

OFFERS BOYS CHANCE TO BECOME MECHANICS

Marion Steam Shovel Has Modern Training Course.

FINEST IN COUNTRY

Number Increases from Nine to
Fourteen Boys Since Opening
November 16.

An opportunity for boys aged from sixteen to twenty years, who are desirous of becoming skilled tradesmen or mechanics is offered in the apprentice training course recently instituted at the plant of the Marion steam shovel company. The system now in operation at the Marion Steam Shovel company is one of the finest and most up-to-date in the country.

The course, which lasts for a period of four years, was opened after November 16 with nine boys enrolled. This number has since increased to fourteen. Three very attractive features, security, training and pay, are offered to the apprentice in this new course.

Adhere to Highest Standards.
One of the most important things according to those in charge of the work is the selection of the boys and the highest standard are adhered to in their choice. Those who have not been desirable in school and can not secure the recommendation of the school authorities are disqualified. In making application, a scale of 100 points is used by which the apprentice is graded. Five general divisions are made which include general impression, twenty-five points; mental, twenty-five points; physical, twenty points; moral, fifteen; and mathematics and reference, fifteen.

Under general impression, common sense draws ten points, while tact, mechanical aptitude and future ambitions, each draw five points. Under mental, two years of high school at the age of sixteen, observation, general knowledge, attitude and self reliance each count five points.

Under the head of physical, health draws ten points and activity and appearance each draw five points. Under moral, character draws ten points and manners and habits draw five points. Finally, mathematics draws a points and reference draws five points.

Four-Page Record Sheet.
After the applicant has been accepted, a four-page record sheet is filled out, with a line allowed for each pay period. At these times he is given a grade on initiative, accuracy, neatness, reliability, reasoning, personality and attitude. Figures are used in grading. One stands for poor, two for deficient, three for medium, four for good and five for excellent. By the use of figures, it is possible to add them and strike an average.

While the term of the apprentice's course is four years, a high-school graduate is given credit for one year on his apprenticeship and is started in at the same rate of pay as which a second year apprentice is paid. At the end of our years work the high-school graduate, by reason of higher pay and having worked one year at a regular mechanics pay, will have earned $720 more than the boy with less than a full high-school training.

All of the boys attend classes during the first two hours of three days each week and are given pay for the time and credit for it on their apprenticeship. The time is devoted to studying history, civics, economics, the history of industry and invention, drafting and shop mechanics. Much must apprentice pass several months in the foundry, forge and pattern shop to train them in the relation of the other departments to the industry as a whole. Apprentice draftsmen spend one and one-half years in the shop and erecting room before entering the drafting room.

The time of apprenticeship of four years is divided into eight periods of 1,120 hours each, totaling 8,960 hours. Divided by this equals about 224 hours a month or about eight hours a day. The apprentice and the company enter in agreement regarding the amount of work and the compensation. This is a contract of a sliding scale, which is determined by the average wage of all the mechanics in the plant.

Increased Pay Period.
The apprentice is started on pay by the hour which is equal to thirty-five per cent of the total and this is increased at three up to eight per cent a period until the last period when the apprentice receives seventy per cent of the regular pay of a mechanic. The sliding scale was put into effect at other plants during the war with the consent of apprentices who had signed up before the war. It was then begun and who so it is a considerably increased rate. As the wage of a mechanic increases the rate of the apprentice is increased in the same proportion. Averages are figured every six months, in July and December.

Beyond the special training being given the apprentices, special classes are being conducted at night and about forty attended the four classes, Engineering and its prob-

Items are studied at these classes and by taking advantage of the courses, workmen may get a complete education in engineering.

While the class of apprentices numbers but fourteen, the management plans to increase it to thirty within the next year. One of the chief incentives for having such a training is the fact that most of the men who have advanced to higher positions in the shop have been men who took special training in their spare time early in life.

Among the large corporations having systems of industrial training are the Westinghouse Electric company, the General Electric company, the Western Electric company, the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company, the Ford Motor company, the Carnegie Steel company, the American Locomotive company, and Warner & Swasey company.

While these companies have had their systems in operation for years, the system at the Marion Steam Shovel company ranks second to none in its facilities for industrial education. The local system has been passed on and approved by the state department of education.

A Successful Man

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines was Dr. R. V. Pierce. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line.

Over fifty years ago this noted physician gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equaled for the weaknesses of women. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is nature's best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakness, pains, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it in both tablet and fluid form.

Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package. Write for free medical advice.—Adv.

MARION MAN BEGINS

FRANK BUTTERWORTH LEAVES THIS AFTERNOON

Sails Saturday from Hoboken. Gets Passport in Record of Two and One-Half Days.

Frank H. Butterworth, watchmaker, No. 575 east George street, leaves this evening for Jersey City on the first lap of a transatlantic race with death. His destination is Rockdale, eighty miles from Liverpool, England, where his mother, Mrs. Constance Collingwood, lies at the point of death following a stroke of paralysis.

Butterworth sails from Hoboken Saturday on the Cunard liner, Cameroun, scheduled to dock in Liverpool six days later. Luck so far has favored him in the race to reach his mother's side before death intervenes. Circumstances of the case spurred officials of the department of state to unswerving activity, enabling him to obtain passports two and one-half days after his application was received in Washington. Usually from a week to ten days are required.

Away Thirteen Years.
Degree of Butterworth to reach his mother before she dies is intensified by the fact that he has not seen her for thirteen years. When he left England, he came first to Cleveland then went to Toledo where he was located for seven years. He has been in Marion thirteen months. Butterworth received the first cable appraising him of his mother's condition last Friday. He immediately forwarded to Washington an application for passports. The necessary papers were received in Marion Wednesday morning. The application reached Washington Monday. The speed with which they were received establishes a record for Marion.

After applying for passports Butterworth received a second cable stating that his mother was not expected to live and that she has been calling for him.

Before leaving Marion Butterworth stated that he could not tell how long he would remain in England. If his mother dies he probably will be detained several months pending settlement of the estate.

CITY IN BRIEF

Paul Minshall Improving.—Paul Minshall, of Ellis court, who is a student at Georgetown university, is confined to a hospital in Washington where he was taken for a minor operation. His sister, Miss Margaret Minshall, is at his bedside and a telegram received from her Wednesday states that he is getting along nicely.

To Enter Campaign.—Active participation in the coming political campaign was decided upon at a meeting of the Central Labor union at the headquarters on north Main street, Wednesday evening. United support and active work in behalf of candidates in sympathy with union labor was favored and plans to adopt a platform were approved.

Break All Records.—All past records for depository interest in the county were broken during the short month of February when the interest paid on the county's funds by the various banks amounted to $2,079.65. This is due to the high rate being paid by the banks as in comparison to previous years, while the amount of the tax collection was exceptionally large.

Takes Case Up on Error.—Through Carhart & Warner a petition in error was filed in the court of appeals this morning by the American Railway Express company, plaintiff-in-error, against Charles A. Cooper, defendant-in-error. The defendant-in-error received a judgment against the plaintiff-in-error in the sum of $251.10 in an action tried before Judge Grant E. Mower for the loss of household goods and the plaintiff-in-error asks that the judgment of the lower court be set aside.

Marion Wins Preliminary.—Marion volleyball players representing the Y. M. C. A. Business Men's club won the preliminary for the northern division in the state tournament at Lima Wednesday afternoon. They will now play in the semi-finals at Dayton, meeting the winner of the preliminaries for the southern division. The Marion players met Toledo first, winning two straight games by scores of fifteen to seven and fifteen to ten. They then played Lima after that team had eliminated Van Wert and again won in straight games, fifteen to nine and fifteen to seven. Players participating were Hume, captain; Lindsay, Stief, Stang, Foster and McDaniels.

Sunshine Class.
Members of the Sunshine class of the First Memorial Baptist church met Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Porter, of Woodrow avenue. The afternoon was passed socially and a program was given. Guests of the class were Miss Margaret Grafton, Miss Mary Grafton, Joseph Grafton and Marion Turner. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

Are you helping the Bird-McGinnis post membership drive by boosting the American legion?

It's true that degraded women are now using "gummy" babies as a ruse for the transportation of hooch, then it will be well for the police to keep a weather eye out for "suspicious fathers."

We would be willing to wager that the woman who gave a bellboy a dollar for finding a $6,000 brooch lost by her wasn't the wife of a paragrapher. The wife of a paragrapher would have picked up a larger spirit of generosity. And, then, there's another reason leading to our belief.

NOT A QUESTION OF PARTISANSHIP.

In their opposition to the Iyer anti-lynching bill, which has passed the house, certain Democratic senators are raising the partisan and sectional issue. It is not the fault of northern Republicans that the majority of mob murders take place in southern states where the Democratic party is in control. Plans for much more drastic action affecting southern states have been proposed only to be discarded for fear of the appearance of unfair discrimination against a particular section of the country. It has been urged that the representation in Congress of those states which have persistently denied political rights to a large proportion of their citizens should be reduced in accordance with an amendment to the constitution.

All the Iyer bill proposes is the punishment of local officials for failure to prevent lynchings or to make reasonable efforts to prevent mob murders. The bill also defines participation in a lynching as a felony, with life imprisonment as the maximum penalty. A county in which a lynching takes place must pay $10,000 to the victim's relatives. It has been found virtually impossible to obtain the conviction of lynchers in a state court. Admittedly the governors and governments of southern states have had it within their power to render federal action unnecessary. They have had plenty of warnings that some such action would have to be taken. Now when they are it coming they raise the cry of invasion of states' rights and sectional and partisan persecution.

The Iyer bill bears equally upon all the states. Those which enforce law and order and uphold respect for their courts have nothing to fear. Not all officials of states where lynchings have occurred are indifferent to their responsibility. But even the most conscientious state officers seem helpless in the face of local public opinion. Evidently the time has come for the federal government to step in and restore the reign of law in those regions. It is not a question of partisanship, but of the reputation of our country. No other civilized nation is stained by such a disgrace.

THE SUMMER TRAINING CAMPS.

While it greatly lessened the possibility of war the Washington disarmament conference did not obviate the need for the maintenance of adequate national defenses. The question of reducing land forces was not seriously considered. The tendency in our own and other countries is toward reduction of standing armies. This policy renders all the more necessary the providing of an auxiliary force of trained citizens that can be called upon in case of emergency.

This is one of the purposes of the Military Training Camps association, which was formed a couple of years ago to extend that original Plattsburg idea. Last summer it induced the war department to make the experiment of establishing camps in the nine army corps areas where military training was given for one month to young men. Over 40,000 applications were received and 11,000 were accepted.

Ninety per cent. of those admitted last summer were under twenty. College and high school students, therefore, composed the majority. Considering the brief period of training, the physical benefits, as shown by the measurements before and after taking the course, are remarkable. The testimony of parents as to the general improvement effected by the mental and physical discipline should be interesting to fathers and mothers who have been in doubt as to giving their consent to their sons to go to camp.

President Harding has expressed the hope that the training camps will eventually accommodate 100,000 men a year. During the coming summer it is hoped to take care of from 27,000 to 30,000, dependent on appropriations from Congress. The charge of "militarism" can not be brought against this democratic plan which, sufficiently extended, would render the maintenance of great forces of professional soldiers unnecessary.

LIVING BEYOND THE CENTURY MARK.

Attention forcibly is directed to a Cincinnati man who died the other day at the age of 105, whose father lived to be 112 and whose sister still is living at the age of 109. It was not of sufficient interest to the general public to know that this man lived beyond the century mark, and that he came from a long-lived family, and that he passed the greater part of his life in the mountains of Virginia, suffering exposures that caused his fellow-men to look upon him as almost superhuman. No, the press despatches carried more than that about him, stressing particularly these facts:

He chewed tobacco ninety-seven years.

He drank whisky practically all of his life.

He was never sick a day save when, as a confederate in the civil war, he was wounded at Gettysburg and later when he suffered minor injuries in a flour-mill accident.

He retired from active life at the age of ninety-nine and, deciding at 103 to see a "bit" of America while he was still "young," began his first long railway journey.

And, as a finishing touch, we are told that he always practiced moderation in all things, even in his drinking, for he took only one toddy a day. Somehow, we can not help from wondering how much longer he might have lived had he not—but perhaps—that would be folly.

Yet John H. Harrouff was a remarkable character.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.

(By Dr. James Hall Taylor.)

THE MODERN MINISTER.

I revere the man whose heart is warm. Whose hands are pure, whose doctrine and whose life.

Candidate, exhibit lucid proof That he is honest in the sacred cause.

There is a marked difference between the preacher of the present and the preacher of fifty or more years ago.

As a rule, the preacher of a half-century ago—I have in mind those of the rural districts, especially—was as unlettered as those he served.

Often he was uncultured and unworldly; but he was sincere.

His ministrations were well-meant.

His services were worth far more than he received for them.

He knew well put one book; but he knew that book—and believed it to be the literal truth, from cover to cover.

Further back along the line of the years, the country preacher was a circuit-rider.

His field of endeavor was the wooded wilderness.

On horseback, he traversed rough roads and lonely trails.

Sometimes the way was so difficult he had to walk and lead his angular steed.

Wherever his hat went off—he was at home.

Speaking the vernacular of that day—he took his pay in "chips and what-nots."

Usually he was a good man, according to lights—with the grace and the gift of God in his heart.

The marked difference, however, between the minister of yesterday and the minister of today is: the minister of yesterday would save the individual from temptations; the minister of today would remove the temptations.

The minister of yesterday would reform the sinner; the minister of today would reform conditions.

The church used to sing—"Rescue the perishing," now it goes forth, in a militant spirit, to remove the dangers.

"Pull for the shore, sailor"—used to be the advice given to the individual sinner.

Now the oil of reform is poured upon the troubled waters, and the sea of vice is commanded—"peace, be still."

The modern minister is a sociological worker.

Rev. W. C. Poole, writing in the New York Times, avers:

"Our fathers found slavery and removed it after four years of civil war. Their sons found the saloon evil and removed it by using their knowledge of government. These two instances illustrate in an outstanding way the difference between old methods of church work and new methods. The old preacher was a strong negation. That sort of man was his favorite text. The ten commandments were his bulwarks. He was strong in denunciation. He called sin and sinners by name. The present generation of preachers have added the gospel to constructive religion."

The old way was to instruct and encourage the sinner to save himself; the new way is to jump in and save him—willy-nilly.

Which is the better?

Let each person answer the question for himself.

THE STATESMAN FROM MARION, OHIO.

(Los Angeles Times.)

When Senator Harding was nominated for president of the United States there arose a scream of dismay from certain persons who were afraid that the nominee would not have the "world touch" necessary for a grasp of the situation. There was a prevalent fear that, coming from Marion, Ohio, he didn't know about the ocean and the lands that lie beyond the seas.

The idea seemed to be that only by a fixed and habitual familiarity with the Hoboken docks could any statesman understand world problems. But, alas, for all prophets!

No president in the history of the White House has shown a wider, finer grasp of world politics than President Harding.

The country editor from his little, one-horse Ohio town has the vision and the universal qualities of mind that distinguish great statesmen.

Looking back over world events since the armistice, it is clear that President Wilson saw with the narrow vision of a "single-track" mind.

President Harding has shown the wide vision of a big, broad statesman.

The international policies of Mr. Wilson were lacking in constructive imagination. His remedy for establishing the future stability of world peace was to fasten around fixing the boundary lines between two bickering little Balkan states whose greatest need was bath-tubs—not boundaries.

In order to have his way in this he threw aside the problems of the Pacific as being of no significance.

President Harding, on the other hand, had the big vision to see that the old order had passed. He was statesman enough to realize that the interminable squabbles in the Balkans which had led to wars without number were dead. He saw that the events of the European war had forever killed the "Balkan question," that the center of world interest had shifted to the Orient.

Instead of following Mr. Wilson's strange idea that Shantung was but an inconsiderable straw in the wind compared with the boundary line between two Balkan back yards, Mr. Harding saw that it is in the Orient that danger threatens.

And he directed his curative efforts to the seat of the disease. As a result, the world is now as securely fixed in a status of peace as at any time for the last two hundred years.

Mr. Harding has also put his finger on the question of ship subsidies as the crucial point in the new era that is opening for America.

Mr. Wilson's idea was for America to project herself into European affairs by some mysterious psychic impulse, without any practical way to get there.

Mr. Harding's idea is for this nation to attend to its own affairs in so far as that is practically possible, but to equip ourselves with the merchant marine that is so essential to our absolutely necessary overseas activities.

MR. AND MRS. CARTER DeHAVEN
A First National Attraction

IN THE GREAT FARCE COMEDY STAGE SUCCESS
"THE GIRL IN THE TAXI"

From the Play by Stanislaus Strange.
He hid in a taxi to avoid meeting his father. A beautiful young girl entered and he was whisked away.
He had pawned his father's best clothes. His father insisted on calling him a "Mollycoddle."
Father, caught in a jam with another woman, had to convince friend wife of his innocence.
A policeman, upon being called to quell a disturbance, found his wife a member of the riotous party.

MAJOR H. F. CHISHOLM GETS BRITISH POST

Former Marion Man English
Vice Consul at Cleveland.

PRACTICED MEDICINE
HERE SEVERAL YEARS

Mrs. Chisholm Formerly Miss
Mildred Hopkins, of Marion.
Appointment Popular.

Word has been received here of the appointment of Major Horatio F. Chisholm as British Vice Consul at Cleveland, to succeed Harry L. Gresham, resigned. Major Chisholm has many friends and acquaintances in this city where he practiced medicine for a number of years.

Major Chisholm was born in Perthshire, Scotland, and was educated in private schools and at Edinburgh University from which he received the degree of M. A. M. B. C. M. D. He entered the Royal Army Medical Corps and served in Egypt for two years. He then joined the Indian Medical Service in which he served for five years, being promoted to Major. He has been engaged in private practice in Cleveland since 1908 and served the British Government as an examiner of all recruits who passed the colors from the beginning of the war. He also was an officer of the British Recruiting Commission.

Promoted to Ranking Major. In 1915 Major Chisholm was appointed president of the Standing Medical Board in Quebec and was promoted to the rank of major on his appointment to general headquarters of the Thirteenth Military District where he served until his retirement from the army at the end of 1919. He is the ranking British officer in Cleveland and is actively interested in all of among the ex-service men of the British and Canadian forces in that city. The appointment is a foreign one and is very important in a constantly growing commercial center such as Cleveland. Major Chisholm's appointment is a most popular one and was urged by a large number of Clevelanders of British birth as well as by numerous Americans who have known him for years and appreciate his sterling worth and capabilities.

The new location of the British vice consulate is on the second floor of the Newman-Stern building, on east Twelfth street. Mrs. Gresham who has been vice consul for the past thirteen years, desires to devote his entire time to his work as manager of the whole estate.

Dr. Chisholm's wife was formerly Miss Mildred Hopkins, of this city and the family resided on east Center street.
